Seneca Park Zoo announces Spring Break schedule

Special programming four times per day, every day

April 11, 2019 – Spring is finally here, and Seneca Park Zoo is celebrating with special programming for Spring Break when kids are out of school. From Saturday, April 13 through Sunday, April 21, the Zoo will have special programming four times a day, every day.

Feedings, keeper chats and enrichment experiences are a great way to learn more about the animals at the Zoo and their counterparts in nature. Guests will have the opportunity to talk with Zoo Keepers, Docents and Naturalists to learn more about the animals, their care, and their conservation status.

This is also a great time to see the new Animals of the Savanna expansion which opened last fall, featuring giraffes, zebras and much more.

The special programs are daily at 10:30, 11:30, 1:30 and 2:30. The schedule can be found at senecaparkzoo.org/springbreak. Now through October 31, Seneca Park Zoo is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., with last entry at 4 p.m.

Internationally, and in our own backyard, Seneca Park Zoo plays a key role in species survival. Chartered as an educational institution in 1957 by New York State, the Seneca Park Zoo Society plays an integral role in supporting Monroe County, the owners and operators of the Zoo. Together, we are working to bring animals back from the brink of extinction.
