DINOLFO ANNOUNCES SENIOR DAY AT SENECA PARK ZOO

Individuals 60+ will receive free admission 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.; Lunch will be provided with pre-registration for a suggested contribution of $5.00

Monroe County Executive Cheryl Dinolfo and officials from Seneca Park Zoo announced Senior Day at Seneca Park Zoo will be held on Friday, September 20, 2019. Individuals 60+ and their spouse (regardless of age) will receive free admission from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Additionally, individuals who pre-register before September 6 can receive a box lunch for a suggested contribution of $5.

“I look forward to welcoming our community’s seniors to a free day at one of Monroe County’s finest attractions, our Seneca Park Zoo,” said Dinolfo. “Our community is so enriched by our elder population – Monroe County is stronger because of them. It is important to take opportunities to thank our seniors when we can, and this free event at the zoo is the perfect opportunity to do so.”

In addition to free admission and lunch for a suggested donation, participants will enjoy free tram service and live music at the event.

In order to receive the box lunch, individuals will have to pre-register by September 6. More information is provided at senecaparkzoo.org/seniorday, or by calling the Office of the Aging at 585-753-6953.

Free admission will be offered to eligible guests from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on this day. The Zoo stays open until 5:00 p.m. For more information visit senecaparkzoo.org/seniorday.
