Family-friendly celebration with ball drop and “toast” at Noon

County Executive Cheryl Dinolfo announced that on Tuesday, December 31, Seneca Park Zoo is hosting a family-friendly New Year’s Eve celebration – “Noon Year’s Eve” – designed with bedtimes in mind.

“The Seneca Park Zoo is a great place to build memories with loved ones, no matter what the season,” said Dinolfo. “I hope you’ll join us at ‘Noon Year’s Eve’ to raise a glass of apple juice and give cheers to our family, friends, and all the Zoo animals we know and love!”

Zoo guests will enjoy special animal experiences, including a countdown and ball drop at the lion habitat at noon. An apple juice “toast” will be provided, along with bubbles for the first 700 children that arrive that day. A special Book and Beast reading for toddlers will be held at 11:15 a.m. All activities are included with Zoo admission.

In addition, there will be a special hot cocoa and cookie bar available for purchase, along with other tasty comfort foods.

More information about Noon Year’s Eve is available at senecaparkzoo.org/noon. Seneca Park Zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. with last entry at 3 p.m. during winter hours. The Zoo will be closed on New Year’s Day.
